I always love spending time in Georgette Heyer's world; with duels, masked balls, elopements, high-stakes card games and lively period slang, her novels provide perfect escapism and based on this collection, so do her short stories.

Sylvester Or The Wicked Uncle : Heyer, Georgette : Free

Update: Feb. 2018 reread, just because I needed a literary pick-me-up. This solidified Frederica as one of my top 3 Georgette Heyer books. The main characters are intelligent, a little older (24 and 37), and their dialogue as they tease each other is hilariously witty.

One of the things I adore about Georgette Heyer's heroines is that they are not shy shrinking violets, though some may take a while to develop their strengths. For the most part GH's heroines are intelligent, and often strong-willed and outspoken women who can 'take their fences' side by side with any man.
