It was golden brown, of medium build, wearing a harness and unleashed. Kane, a friendly 10-month-old Pitbull mix " himself brown and large- to medium-size " naturally wanted to say hello to this new dog on the block. I let him approach as I started to explain the rules for walking a shelter dog to the couple at my side.

Dog owners, like delightfully proud parents, are often blind to the misdemeanours of their charges. In the same way that many mums and dads of affluent suburbs are apt to allow their toddler to crawl around the floor of a busy pub, chortling at their taste for adventure as exasperated staff try ...
